McGillivray Award in 1986 as a special tribute to the memory of Russ McGillivray and the outstanding contribution he made to the development of bilingual education. Russ McGillivray was a Superintendent of Schools and a Superintendent of Program with the Carleton Board of Education. His special focus was in the area of bilingual education. He played a leading role in the initial development and growth of early and late immersion programs in the Carleton Board. As well, he advised numerous boards of education on French Second Language (FSL) programs and lectured on the topic throughout North America.
